I know

I lived alone for a long long time
And everything seemed allright
I lived my live quite as I wanted
And mostly did the way I felt
I had just everything I asked for
There was not one thing I could wish more
My heart was closed my deepest secrets
I accepted the simple fact
I knew that noone knew the soul inside me
I knew that noone could know me

But then it was just an ordinary day
When you came across my way
When you came without giving any sign
When you just broke into my live
And you came and you took your place
There was not one thing I could do
You watched my heart my deepest secret
For you I was a simple fact

You knew you were the one to see my soul
You knew you were the one I really care
You knew you were the one to see my heart
You knew you were the one for me

I knew you were the one to see my soul
I knew you were the one I really care
I knew you were the one to see my heart
I knew you were the one for me

I've been just everywhere I've tried just everything
I kissed so many lips but I never never really cared
I'd seen so many eyes I'd trust so many times
I knew just everything but not me
